NEW JEWELRY ARRIVALS IN LULO

New jewelry has been pouring in this summer and we are working hard to keep the online shop updated with more spaces added. Here is peak at a few of the artists and works coming in. Click on the images to see more from from our stocked online shop.

West Coast native Jenn Goff's jewelry is organic, earthy, causal and edgy. She finishes her jewelry in a lush 14k brushed gold plated on brass.

Ashley Buchanan pays tribute to the decorative and historical jewelry in her reinterpreted modern aesthetic. Pieces are created in powdercoated metals with powerful and contemporary colors.

New York based Mia Hebib of Oblik Atelier works in sleek and sculptural forms - each piece is a wearable work of art. Love this new grouping of 14k gold plated earrings and luscious cuff in sterling silver.

Oakland based artist Nikki Couppee redefines our ideas of sophistication and valuables with her unique approach to use of material and design. Her jewelry is created from plexiglass, brass and found objects rather than traditional materials of gemstones, gold and pearls.
